

PALO VERDE PARK POST

The official newsletter of the Palo Verde Park Neighborhood Association

A word from the president

BY NORMA COFFMAN

A neighborhood is more than just a collection of houses.

In part, it's about building relationships so someone can grab your mail when you go on vacation or keep an eye out for a delivery. It's about saying hello when you pass on the street or being able to borrow an extension cord or a cup of sugar in a pinch.

In part, it's also about building an identity.

And that's why we're excited to invite you to our first official neighborhood association meeting.

There are nearly 150 registered neighborhoods in Tucson, working toward common goals and a shared sense of purpose.

We deserve no less.

As an organized association, we will now have more power in shaping our neighborhood and can have stronger communication with local government officials as we work toward the preservation and improvement of our quality of life.

It's not all work, either! We'll have opportunities for social activities, from movies in the park to ice cream socials and park cleanups, that will help us get to know one another better.

Thank you for joining us on this journey and we look forward to seeing you on the 16th!

What's your favorite thing about Palo Verde Park?
Show us!

We're collecting photos for an image gallery for our neighborhood association's website, to brag a little about what makes this little corner of the universe so special!

(Please be a good neighbor and make sure you ask permission to have the photo published online if you're photographing other people.)

Send your image to our website and we'll share it!
And a special thanks to photographer extraordinaire Jack Kulawik for his image of a sunrise in the park that is our banner image for our website. And to Fred Araiza for the morning crew on the newsletter!
