PARK POST

Annual Bake Sale Fundraiser Coming Sept. 1

It's widely known that calories in support of a good cause don't count. So lift your forks for a cleaner park!

We're raising money for dog waste stations at the park.

Our regular customers know the drill: Pre-order any of the $10 treats made by your neighbors starting Sept. 1. We'll deliver them fresh the weekend of Sept. 20, unless other arrangements are made.

RSVP for the Block Party

Sept 13, 5 p.m - 6:30 p.m.

Block Party and Burgers

Our grill wizard will be cooking up burgers, hot dogs and a fun time, giving us a chance to just enjoy our neighbors and make new friends.

We'll need a guesstimate on how many folks to expect, so please RSVP if you can make it, at rhondabb@hotmail.com.

We'll be meeting at the space between the new basketball court and the small dog park.

See you then!

Looking for a Few Good Pirately Volunteers

We're gearing up for October's Pirate Parade, and we're looking for a few volunteers to join our hearty crew.

If you can help with games or Trunk-or-Treat, we'd love to have you on deck to bring a little fun to the neighborhood.

Reach out to rhondabb@hotmail.com for more information about how to get involved.

Thank You, Tucson Fire

Many thanks to Janela Livingston, the public education specialist at Tucson Fire Department, for closing out our regular meeting series with a fire and fall prevention class. A few tips: Throw rugs are not your friend. Practice tai chi or other regular exercise. Wear sturdy shoes (sorry, flip flop fans). And always take your time!

New Signage at Labyrinth

Ever find yourself walking along and wondering what that plant is?

The labyrinth now has some signage that might help.

Thanks to a few handy neighbors, some wood signs now adorn the path, providing more awareness of the beautiful desert plants around us.
